

October 27/06

Hispanic Alliance of Tampa announced winner Artists of the First competition for the Calendar 2007

TAMPA. - The new organization "Hispanic Alliance of Tampa", Inc., announced the thirteen winning artists of the first competition, Calendar 2007, who will receive their respective recognitions on November 2nd of 2006, in the Tampa Museum of Art at 6:30 p.m.

Gus Ocamposilva with the art work "Sounds of the Wind" has been one of the artists that will be part of the Calendar 2007,

The Alliance is non profit network of Hispanic organizations, whose mission is to be the means of connection of these organizations located in the area; besides unite the different groups. Another one of the missions is to be a representative voice of the Hispanic community; to promote the culture, the education and the leadership; to foment the development of the organizations members of the Alliance; and to be informative.

"Sounds of the wind" 48"x41" Acrylic on canvas