

JIM DAMASKE | Times

Making waves at the water plant

JIM DAMASKE | Times

Colombian artists Gus and Lina Ocamposilva secure a piece of one of eight sculptures they were installing Friday on a wall around Dunedin's Wastewater Treatment Facility. The welded steel water-related designs were chosen to represent the mission and statement of the facility. The artists say they have completed 23 public murals and sculptures in Florida, South Dakota and Georgia since 2006.